

DEFENSE EQUAL OPPORTUNITY MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE (DEOMI)

FY 2004 TOPICAL RESEARCH INTERN PROGRAM (TRIP)

- ☛ TRIP provides an opportunity for highly qualified military or civilian personnel to complete a specially selected individual work force diversity project and prepare a report that will be widely disseminated throughout the Services and external agencies.
- ☛ Personnel overseas may apply, however, if selected, transportation to CONUS will be arranged by selectee. DEOMI pays only transportation from POE.
- ☛ Reservists may apply, however, DEOMI does not pay a salary, only per diem and transportation.
- ☛ TRIP assignments are funded by DEOMI for 30 consecutive days and are completed on site at DEOMI, Patrick Air Force Base, Florida, with housing and messing facilities (messing for military only) provided on base.
- ☛ Minimum qualification requirements include:
 - Be a noncommissioned officer (E-6 and above), a warrant officer, an officer (O-3 and above), or a DoD/USCG civilian (GS-7 and above).
 - Have an outstanding performance history.
 - Be available for temporary assignment for 30 consecutive days.
- ☛ Interested individuals should submit an application (with the required attachments and signature) to the appropriate Service address (below) by:

August 15, 2003

- ☛ Selection criteria include:
 - * Research experience or potential
 - * Prior academic success
 - * Capacity to work independently
 - * Knowledge of issues
 - * Superior writing skills

Send only the application form, with your supervisor's signature and the TWO required attachments (your written paragraph and your transcripts). DO NOT INCLUDE: diplomas, original transcripts, award certificates, completed projects, TDY orders, DD Forms 171, biographies, or any other miscellaneous information.

Be concise (don't tell us where you went to high school, basic training, etc.) Remember--more on this application is not necessarily better.
