

1. TAD OPPORTUNITIES: The following two TAD opportunities will be available soon. If you are interested in either, please contact the POC as soon as possible.

a. JTF GTMO: Opportunity to serve as Deputy SJA for CJTF-GTMO for 179 days beginning in July 2004. The JTF-GTMO SJA's office is comprised of an SJA (Army, O-5), Deputy SJA (Navy, O-4), 1 Assistant SJA (Air Force, O-4), 1 Legal Assistance Attorney (Army, O-4), 1 Military Justice Attorney (Army, O-3); and five paralegals (3 Army, 1 Navy, and 1 Air Force). Interested officers should have a TS Clearance and be eligible for SCI. The Deputy SJA is responsible for the areas of international, operational law, and intelligence law. Deputy SJA is responsible for issues related to detainee operations, supervises the Assistant SJA with issues related to detainee operations and ethics, supervises the Legal Assistance and Military Justice offices, and performs other traditional SJA duties. Familiarity with joint operations (the JTF is Army heavy) is important. International/intel/operational law background also helpful. (POC: LCDR Protin)

b. Criminal Investigation Task Force (CITF) : Available September 2004. Located onboard Ft Belvoir, VA. There is a JAG requirement for 2 Navy Lieutenants in addition to 4 Army and 2 Air Force Captains. The JAG responsibilities include providing advice and reports to U.S. Army and Office of Military Commissions regarding commission investigations. The JAG opportunities include briefing senior JAGs, traveling out of country and also liaison with DoD commands, USA commands, US federal agencies and international law enforcement agencies. Travel out of country is optional and may also include small arms familiarization. An SCI clearance is required for full participation at CITF, but you will be able to participate in most of the command mission if your SSBI is submitted 2 to 3 months in advance of your report date. (POC: LCDR McCurdy)
