1. TAD Opportunities: Please contact the POC if you are interested in either of the below TAD opportunities:

a. JTF GTMO: Opportunity for a LCDR to serve as Deputy SJA, CJTF-GTMO for 179 days beginning in January 2005. The JTF-GTMO SJA's office is comprised of an SJA (Army, O-5), Deputy SJA (Navy, O-4), 1 Assistant SJA (Air Force, O-4), 1 Legal Assistance Attorney (Army, O-4), 1 Military Justice Attorney (Army, O-3); and five paralegals (3 Army, 1 Navy, and 1 Air Force). Interested officers should have a TS Clearance and be eligible for SCI. The Deputy SJA is responsible for the areas of international, operational law, and intelligence law and issues related to detainee operations. The Deputy SJA supervises the Assistant SJA with issues related to detainee operations and ethics, supervises the Legal Assistance and Military Justice offices, and performs other traditional SJA duties. Familiarity with joint operations and international/intel/operational law is also helpful. (POC: LCDR Jim Protin)

b. Criminal Investigation Task Force (CITF): Available January 2005 for a LT. Located onboard Ft Belvoir, VA. Navy provides two JAG LTs who work with four Army and two Air Force Captains. The JAG responsibilities include providing advice and reports to U.S. Army and Office of Military Commissions regarding commission investigations. The JAG opportunities include briefing senior JAGs, traveling out of country and also liaison with DoD commands, USA commands, US federal agencies and international law enforcement agencies. Travel out of country is optional and may also include small arms familiarization. An SCI clearance is required for full participation at CITF, but you will be able to participate in most of the command mission if your SSBI is submitted well in advance of your report date. (POC: LCDR Tierney Carlos)
